

Tina Segura is a staff attorney with the Disability Rights Legal Center's Cancer Legal Resource Center (CLRC) in Los Angeles, California. Ms. Segura provides legal information and resources to people affected by cancer through CLRC's national telephone assistance line and conducts educational trainings on behalf of CLRC for patients, survivors, caregivers, and healthcare professionals on topics such as health insurance, disability benefits, employment discrimination, and advance planning. Additionally, Ms. Segura engages in health care policy advocacy, and is a member of the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network, the Orange County Cancer Coalition, and the Latina Task Force.

Prior to this position, Ms. Segura worked at Mental Health Advocacy Services, directly serving low-income individuals with mental health disabilities. Ms. Segura graduated from Pepperdine University School of Law where she was a member of the Advocates for Public Interest Law student organization, conducting arrest rights workshops for at-risk homeless youth. In law school, Ms. Segura completed internships at Union Rescue Mission, Office of the Los Angeles County Public Defender, and Paz y Esperanza. Ms. Segura is a member of the California State Bar and the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. In her free time, Ms. Segura enjoys surfing and protecting the ocean by advocating for progressive environmental policies as a member of the Surfrider Foundation Los Angeles policy committee.